FOCUS THIS WEEK

S2 CLASSES (using Prophet to make changes)

Year 11 and 12 students will receive timetables for S2 during Link and AG today.

Changes MUST be discussed with your teacher.

If you are happy with classes you have been rolled over into, please sign your timetable and return to your link/AG teacher or to e-knex

To Make Changes:

- Log onto Prophet (Instruction sheet available from link/AG teachers or e-knex)
- Make the change required. Classes that do not appear on Prophet, but are on the grid are FULL, you will not be able to choose them
- DO NOT choose a unit you have done this semester or last year (check this on your academic record)
- ESA students cannot choose PE as well as ESA class unless permission given by Mark Armstrong
- Refer to the Grid to make the correct choice of class – such as Year 11 and Year 12 classes, ‘T’ or ‘A’ classes, classes that have a prerequisite entry
- WRITE any changes on the reverse of your timetable and hand it back to your link/AG teacher, or into e-knex.
- PROPHET closes 20th JUNE.
- Timetables will be issued on day 1 of term 3 in a special link. If classes are cancelled or your changes have not been approved you may re-choose at this time.

BOND UNIVERSITY HIGH SCHOOL MOOTING COMPETITION

On 7 May 2014, Chloe Agius, Brittany Earle and Natalie Guilfoyle competed in the Bond University high school mooting competition. After preparing for several weeks, these three stellar students presented arguments for a complicated law case between a teenager and a local council after the teenager became a quadriplegic through diving into a creek at a council party. Presenting to legal academics from Bond University, the girls had to prepare reasoned arguments by understanding the relevant Queensland law whilst being constantly interrupted by the judges with challenging questions. The results were recently released for the competition and Brittany Earle was presented with the prestigious Advocacy award for her tenacious approach to the judge's questioning. Well done to all the girls for an outstanding performance!

SOCCER

Thursday 5th June was the College Boys Soccer Day.

The boys put in a great showing for the round games going through undefeated after playing Dickson College, Gungahlin College, Melba Copland College, Hawker College and Trinity.

In the final we came up against Lake Ginninderra College.

The boys were a bit slow to start and conceded a goal mouth scramble to be down 1-0 at half time. In the second half the boys came back to their best and worked hard to be ahead 2-1. Then Lake G came with a late equaliser. 2-2 at full time. The game went straight to a penalty shootout with the Boys going down 5-3.
