VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

8.1  AUSTRALIAN SCHOOL-BASED APPRENTICESHIPS (ASBAs)

ASbAs offer students the opportunity to achieve a nationally recognised qualification by combining paid work and training as part of their education program during Years 11 and 12.

A Certificate II qualification requires a minimum of 8 hours in the workplace and a minimum of 3 hours off the job training per week. ASbAs are also available for some Certificate III qualifications.

Undertaking an ASbA contributes towards your Year 12 Certificate.

ASbAs can be undertaken in a number of industry areas. They are a valuable experience and provide pathways to future training and employment.

The VET coordinator and Transitions and Careers Officer are available to assist you to explore ASbA options and opportunities.

8.2  NATIONALLY RECOGNISED VOCATIONAL COURSES

Erindale College is a Registered Training Organisation and as such has the capacity to grant national industry certification under the Australian Qualifications Framework. Students are provided with access to this national certification in all vocational (V) courses available at the college.

Nationally recognised vocational courses at Erindale College offer students excellent opportunities to develop real skills for the workplace, as well as pursuing a Year 12 Certificate. These courses integrate college-based learning and training with structured workplace learning. Courses have a practical focus and include significant on the job training opportunities. They are continually being updated in line with National Training Packages, so that students acquire skills and knowledge which have recent endorsement from industry.

Nationally recognised Certificates at Level I and Level II are awarded where participants meet the required standard of industry competence. Students will also receive recognition for partial completion of certificates through a Statement of Attainment. The excellent training facilities in the Erindale area allow the college to present a diverse range of vocational options, providing pathways either directly into the workplace or to further training.

Recognition of Prior Learning

Students with skills and/or experience which may be relevant to a vocational course in which they are enrolling are entitled to seek acknowledgment of this through a Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) process.

National Recognition

Qualifications and Statements of Attainment issued by any Registered Training Organisation (RTO) are accepted and recognised by Erindale College. A learner’s qualifications and part qualifications are portable and can be recognised anywhere in Australia.

Credit Transfer

Credit transfer is used when a person seeks credit or status for a course or subject they have already completed. It involves assessing a previously completed subject or units of competency to see if it provides equivalent learning or competency outcomes to those required within your current course of study. The purpose of credit transfer is to make it easier for students to move between courses and institutions and to gain credit for previous study so they can complete their current qualification more quickly.
