Congratulations to all the boys involved who went undefeated all day in the Stephen Larkem Shield. By winning all 4 games they have now qualified for the Waratah Cup. Riley Hughes of Yr10 was named player of the day.

On the other side of that, the same group of boys had to back up and play for their club on Saturday before having the privilege of playing the curtain raiser for the Brumbies on Saturday night in the final of the Canberra 7’s.

Although fighting back to have a 12 all draw, officials informed me with 30 seconds to go that it is first try wins.

The group tried their hardest but due to the fatigue of playing 6 games in 2 days it eventually caught up with them.

The Boys and Girls teams played the South side semi-finals on Thursday 29th May to get into the North/South Final next week.

The boys won 11-0
The Girls won 13-2

The Erindale Black and Red Netball teams both played on Thursday 29th May:
Erindale Black played Lake Tuggeranong with a convincing 33-4 win.
Erindale Red came up against a tough Narrabundah side and went down 16 – 10.

Well done to both teams and a BIG thanks to Rachelle Cridland who helped me coach since I couldn’t be in 2 places at once!!
