INTERNATIONAL STUDIES ACADEMY 2019

Subject	History
Year	10
Teachers	Joanne Hann
Unit	The Modern World and Australia

GOALS

By the end of Year 10 students demonstrate an ability to:

- refer to key events, the actions of individuals and groups, and beliefs and values to explain patterns of change and continuity over time.
- analyse the causes and effects of events and developments and explain their relative importance.
- explain the context for people's actions in the past.
- explain the significance of events and developments from a range of perspectives.
- explain different interpretations of the past and recognise the evidence used to support these interpretations.
- sequence events and developments within a chronological framework, and identify relationships between events across different places and periods of time.
- develop, evaluate and modify questions to frame an historical inquiry.
- process, analyse and synthesise information from a range of primary and secondary sources and use it as evidence to answer inquiry questions.
- analyse sources to identify motivations, values and attitudes. When evaluating these sources, they analyse and draw conclusions about their usefulness, taking into account their origin, purpose, and context.
- develop and justify their own interpretations about the past.
- develop texts, particularly explanations and discussions, incorporating historical argument. In developing these texts and organising and presenting their arguments, they use historical terms and concepts, evidence identified in sources, and they reference these sources.

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA FOR ASSESSMENT AND REPORTING OF STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

Students will be assessed on the extent to which they can:

- sequence events and developments within a chronological framework, and identify relationships between events across different places and periods of time.
- explain patterns of change and continuity over time
- explain the significance of events and developments from a range of perspectives.
- explain different interpretations of the past and recognise the evidence used to support these interpretations.

ACHIEVEMENT STANDARDS

Grade descriptors provide a guide for teacher judgement of students' achievement, based on the assessment criteria, over a unit of work in this subject. Grades are organized on an A - E basis and represent standards of achievement.

Grades are awarded on the proviso that the assessment requirements have been met.

Teachers will consider, when allocating grades, the degree to which students demonstrate their ability to complete and submit tasks within a specified time frame.

The following descriptors are consistent with the system grade descriptors that describe generic standards of student achievement across all courses. (See attached sheet for grade descriptors)

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION

Students are expected to submit all assessment items and attend all classes, participate in a positive manner and seek support whenever it is required. Excursions, simulations and presentations by visitors (including lunchtime) may form part of classwork. It is your responsibility to catch up on missed work when absent from class.

Any student whose attendance falls below the 90% of the scheduled classes/contact time and has not provided substantial documentary evidence to cover the absence will be awarded a V grade. This means that 4 unexplained absences in a term or 8 unexplained absences in a semester could mean that a V grade may be awarded. However, the Principal has the right to exercise discretion in special circumstances if satisfactory documentation is supplied.

LATE SUBMISSION OF WORK

Students are encouraged to submit work on time, as it is a valuable organisational skill. Students are also encouraged to complete work even if it is late, as there are educational benefits in doing so.

CHEATING AND DISHONEST PRACTICE

The integrity of the College's assessment system relies upon all involved acting in accordance with the highest standards of honesty and fairness. Any departure from such standards will be viewed very seriously." Accordingly:

- Plagiarism - claiming authorship of someone else's work (intentionally or otherwise) - is a serious misdemeanour, and attracts severe penalties.
- Students are required to acknowledge the source of all material that is incorporated into their own work.
- Students may not submit the same item for assessment in more than one unit, unless specific agreement has been reached with the class teacher.
